

COLONIAL HISTORY OF SOUTHEAST ASIA

Intentions of the Lesson

I Want Students to:

1. KNOW the characteristics and significance of the European colonization of Southeast Asia 2. UNDERSTAND and explain the theory that Social Darwinism as it pertains to European Imperialism in Africa. 3. Build (SKILL) critical thinking skills by examining and responding to primary source documents.

Questions

- Do you think there is a good reason for one country to take control of another country?
- If so, under what circumstances do you think that would be justified?

Colonialism	Imperialism

SOUTHEAST ASIAN COLONIES

Burma (Myanmar)

Singapore

Vietnam

Laos

Indonesia

East Timor

What are the major reasons for one country to colonize the other?

What might be some benefits that colonists bring to a colonized nation?

Motives

-
- In order to remain a strong country, _____ believed: a strong _____, a steady supply of _____ for the industrial economy and a _____ to protect economy interest

-
- Did not want other _____ to get ahead of them.

-
- People felt _____ when their country ruled a large
_____.

-
- Based on _____: Europeans were _____ than other people They believed this made it _____ for them to rule other people.

-
- Spread their _____ to people in other parts of the _____. Bring _____ inventions and technology to these people to make their lives better.

-
- Need for _____ materials, _____ from the _____ in the colonies