

How to Start a Revolution

How can I start my own Revolution?

What's Your Problem?

In order to start a revolution, you need to have a problem and you need to find out what your problem is.

Examples could be...

- A horrible government
- A denial of rights

I have a big problem with my government. They never listen to me!

Who Else has this Problem?

Next you need to gather a group of followers who are dealing with the same problem.

Who is your Leader?

You need to choose someone to be in charge and to lead your group.

What's Your Plan?

You need to know what you're doing, and everyone in the group must be informed of the plan.

Now that you know the plan, it's time to Collect Funds,

Support Your Cause, and gain resources.

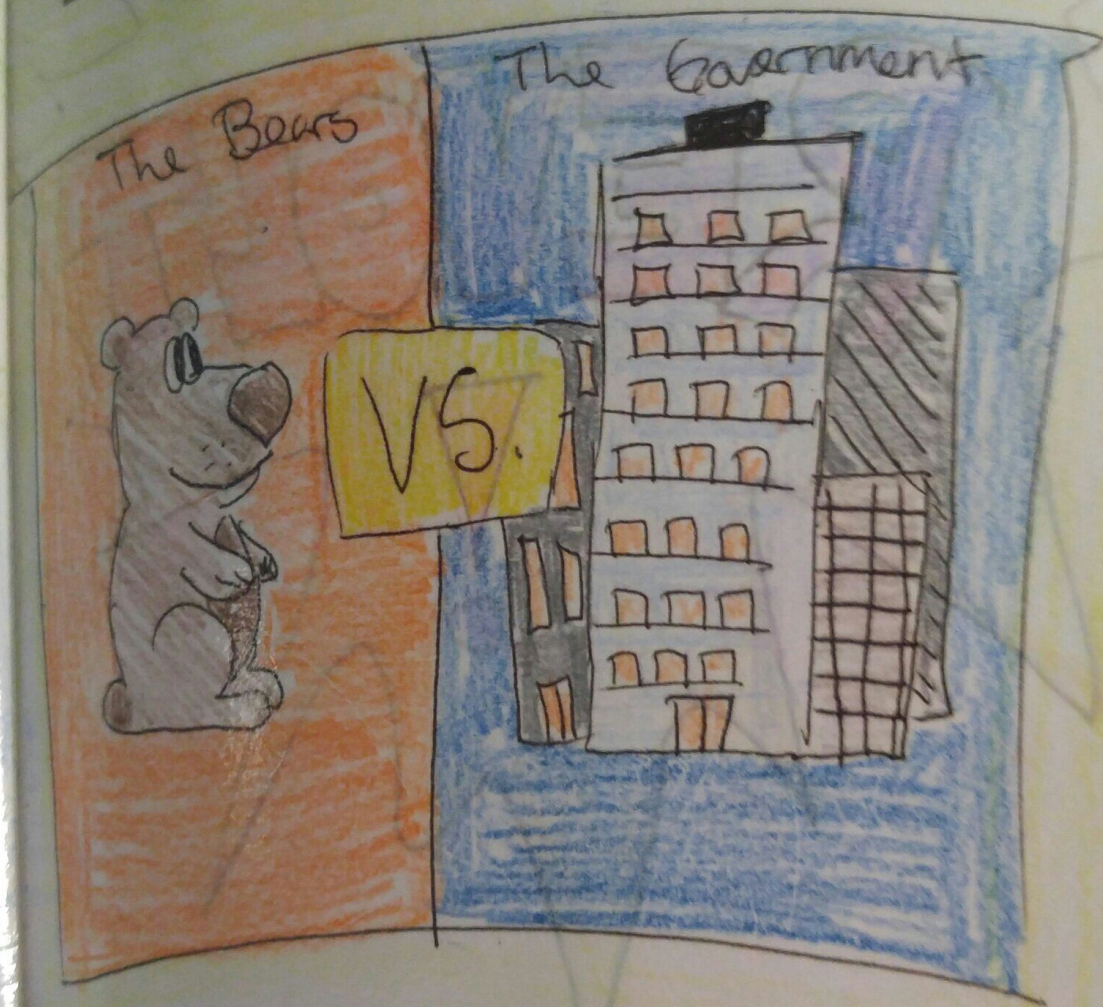

Take Action!

It's now time to follow through with your plan and Revolt!

Now Your Revolt has Started!

REVOLT

Did it Succeed? Or did it fail?

Succeed:

Create your new government

Fail:

Start
Over!
